Zambian Community Schools: Interactive Learning and Teaching Course

Stop and think!

Would you like to be a part of this exciting course?

➔ Why an interactive teaching and learning course?

★   If I hear I forget

★   If I see I remember

★   If I do I know

The purpose of this course is to help teachers in Community Schools to develop their skills to teach in a more interactive way.

This will help your students to:

- Find learning more interesting
- Participate more actively in their own learning
- Take more responsibility for their own learning
- Become successful
- Achieve good results.

This will contribute to you becoming a brilliant teacher! ☺

➔ School participation in the course is voluntary… but if you are in, you are in!

➔ What does this mean for me as a teacher to be a part of this course?

☑   If you agree to participate then you must complete the course. That means that you will need to spend ±5 hours per week for 20 weeks participating in the course.

☑   The course material will be given to you in a book and on a mobile tablet.

☑   What is the tablet for? You will register, take a sample unit test, take a pre and post self-assessment test, take weekly tests and watch and take videos on the tablet.

☑   This is a self-study course. You will be required to work through the course materials in small groups of 3 or maybe 5 with the other teachers in your school.

☑ This is a hands on learning course. Some of the activities that you will be required to do:

- Collect local waste materials – we will show you how to make some of your own resources
- Use group work methods in their classes
- Plan and implement some of the new activities in your classroom
- Learn to use the tablet to make a short video of each other's lessons
- Take weekly tests

☑ The course facilitator will visit your school to provide support to your group. If your group finds that it is stuck it can phone the facilitator for help!

➜ Why should I do the course?

☺ You will learn a lot of practical things to do in your classes

☺ Experience how the course can make your teaching easier and more interesting

☺ The course will be fun
